

READING BENEDICT TODAY

Benedictine Union of Australia & New Zealand

BENEDICTINE STUDY DAY

Pilgrim Theological College

29 College Cres, Parkville

SATURDAY 22 MAY 2021

10.00am-3.30pm

BYO lunch ♦ Morning and afternoon tea provided

Registration required as numbers limited

Register by Friday 7 May 2021

P: Jill O'Brien 0429 666 711

E: jobrien@goodsams.org.au

CARMEL POSA SGS is a sister of the Good Samaritan of 35 years standing. She lectures at Yarra Theological Union in the area of Church History and Spirituality. She also teaches Monastic Studies at St John's University, Collegeville, Minnesota, USA. Carmel will take us into the mystery of God in the whirlwind in a reflection on the paradoxes of community and leadership in the Rule of Benedict.

MICHAEL CASEY OCSO has been a monk of Tarrawarra Abbey since 1960. For the past decades he has been engaged in exploring different aspects of monastic history and spirituality, writing, and giving conferences and retreats throughout the monastic world.

Michael will focus on the fact that most communities today include members of different generations, ethnicities, temperaments and aspirations. Helping all of them to grow, and to grow together, is quite a challenge.

Parking available at the College